

I N F O C U S

WGAM-TV
178 STEVEN DRIVE
MACON, GA 31210
478-474-8400

TELETHON SCHEDULE
 (SUBJECT TO CHANGE)

- OCTOBER 26
 Dwight Thompson
 Beloved
- OCTOBER 27
 Dwight Thompson
 Beloved
- OCTOBER 28
 Philip Cameron
 Phil Driscoll
- OCTOBER 29
 Tommy Bates
 The Blackwoods
- OCTOBER 30
 Richard Roberts
 Jessy Dixon
 The Blackwoods
- OCTOBER 31
 Rodney Howard-Browne
 Mark Payne

THE LAST PIECE OF THE PUZZLE

Have you ever worked on one of those massive jigsaw puzzles? You know, the kind with 5,000 mind-numbingly tiny, odd-shaped, funny-looking pieces. Have you ever gotten to the end and come to the heart-breaking realization that, alas, after working and slaving over that puzzle for so long your back is now in the shape of a pretzel one piece is missing? You scream to the heavens for sanity, you turn the house upside down, you accuse family members of theft, you even check the "output" of the family dog days later to make sure that he didn't eat it. How could you have known that this one little part would wind up causing the picture to be incomplete?

We tend to treat ourselves and our money the same way. We may be odd-shaped, funny-looking, and seem incredibly small in our own eyes. We think that there is no way we could be of use for the Kingdom of Christ.

We do the same with our money. We think that what we have to give can't fill the need, so why give it. There are plenty of people who would give "big checks" to the work of the Lord.

I want to take you to a story that is featured in all 4 Gospels. The Feeding of the 5,000. Could that many men and their families be out there for the whole day and no one thought to pack a lunch? Or was it that no one wanted to give what they had? Except for one little boy who was willing to share. Notice that it was a boy; someone who would be "the least of these" to give. He realized that he was no one of importance or stature, yet he was willing to be used.

Also, what he had to give was inadequate. In the natural you cannot feed over 5,000 people with what he had.

The lessons here are simple. First, don't minimize your importance to the Kingdom. You are the missing piece. There is a you-shaped spot in God's grand design and it can't be filled by anyone else. You are designed to connect with other pieces of the puzzle that no one else is. You are important.

Secondly, don't treat your "little" offering to God as insignificant. God will multiply it as He sees fit. Too often we try to control our money after we have given it. What if that boy had done that with his lunch?

God sees the big picture. He knows how each part fits together. He knows what it is supposed to look like...after all, He is the artist!

Rip Kenley

WGAM General Manager

THE PASTOR'S HEART

- Week of August 31
 Paul Dziadul
 Ch. of the Wildwood
- Week of Sept. 7
 Steve Sawyer
 Harvest Cathedral
- Week of Sept. 14
 John Wood
 Christ Chapel—Macon
- Week of Sept. 21
 Bo Turner
 Real Life
- Week of Sept. 28
 Mark Atkinson
 Macon Wesleyan

FROM MIDDLE GA TO THE ENDS OF THE EARTH

If revival were to break out in Middle Georgia, what would your church or organization have to do differently? What would you have to change? Is your church ready? Are you?

I recently asked myself these questions. At first, I responded that I was ready. Then, the Lord began to do a work in me and convict me that, if I truly be- lieved revival was coming; I would prepare.

We all know that prayer is crucial to the start of revival but so is preparation. The sheer logistics of discipling and assisting the large number of new converts revival brings can be daunting.

Christian Television can and will play a pivotal role in this coming revival. That role is es-entially two-fold. First, we are evangelistic and reach out to non-believers. Secondly, we carry programs that teach and train new believers and those who have followed Christ for years.

Prayer will help bring the revival God seeks to pour out on us. Preparation will help us sustain it.

- Rip Kenley